

DID YOU KNOW?

MEADOWBROOK
COLLABORATIVE
MAY 2017

Park Nicollet

With the help of generous donors and community partners, Park Nicollet Foundation is uniquely able to support programs and people within the Park Nicollet family, and assist our community partners. Meadowbrook Collaborative is an example of the unique programs and services we support.
Thanks for funding Meadowbrook Collaborative!

MEADOWBROOK COLLABORATIVE is a partnership between the City of St. Louis Park, Park Nicollet and St. Louis Park Public Schools that enhances the self-direction of Meadowbrook residents by improving their lives in health, education and safety.

City Visioning Meeting at the Collaborative

Saturday, May 13: 11-12:30 p.m.

ADULT RESIDENTS: Your voice and participation is important to the future of St. Louis Park! The city is holding Vision 3.0 meetings to gather input about issues and concerns important to residents in order to determine city planning.

Pizza and refreshments will be provided. There will be drawings for Cub gift cards! This Vision 3.0 meeting will be facilitated by the Allies of St. Louis Park, which is a community advocacy group. We are hosting this meeting as volunteers on behalf of the City of St. Louis Park.
